

SMART 2020: Power of Knowledge

Thursday, 11 December 2008, 09:00 – 13:00

AWM, Faraday Wharf, Birmingham B7 4BN

09:00 Registration/Tea/Coffee

09:20 – 09:50 Session 1: SMART 2020

09:20 Chair: Ralph Hepworth, Business Development Manager Environmental Technologies, AWM

09:25 Mark Pearce, Corporate Director for Economic Regeneration, AWM

09:30 Martin Abbott, Account Director, CISCO, "IT as an enabler"

09:45 Steven Burns, Central Networks, E.ON UK, 'SMART Networks'

09:55 Peter Hopton, Managing Director, Very-PC, "Total Cost of Ownership, How 'Green' Means More for Less"

10:05– 11:00 Session 2: SMART Buildings and Cities

10:05 Chair: Michael Ciotkowski, Building Technologies Cluster Manager, AWM, "New approaches to low carbon buildings"

10:10 Peter Williams, Senior Business Consultant, Redstone plc

10:25 Working Groups (6 per table x 8 tables)

11:00 Coffee break

11:20 Report back

11:30 – 13:00 Session 3: SMART Vehicles and Transport

11:30 Chair: Ralph Hepworth, Business Development Manager Environmental Technologies, AWM

11:35 Dr Waldemar Bujalski, University of Birmingham, SMART Transport towards Zero Emission Campus

11:50 Tim Luft, Director of eWorking Applied Research Centre

12:05 Christopher Ben, Mdes Industrial Design, 'Transport for Sustainable Future'

12:15 Working Groups (6 per table x 8 tables)

12:50 Report Back

13:00 Lunch/Networking